Joe and Cynthia,

Time is of the essence. There is presently a foreclosure scheduled on your home for December 17, 2007. If this day comes and goes without you taking any positive steps, you will most likely lose your home forever.

There are things you can do. While it may seem that you have reached the end of the road on saving your home, there are still several options open to you. We can help you see those options and take action to preserve your home.

In a short 30 minutes, we will show you exactly what steps you have available to you. We will discuss options and help you decide on a course of action. There is no obligation, there is no fee, there is no pressure. We understand the reasons that bring you to this point, we work with homeowners every day.

30 minutes of your time are all that stand between you and avoiding <<AUCTION_DATE_TIME>>. A mere half hour consultation provides you with options to avoid foreclosure. But we must take action now. If you wait until just days before the foreclosure, we won't be able to help. The earlier you start taking control of the situation, the more we can do for you.

We're interested in helping you save your house and home. We're not here to lend you money or coerce you into a 'foreclosure rescue' scam. We're attorneys who work with homeowners everyday to make sure that they hold onto their piece of the American Dream.

We're waiting for your call. What do you have to lose? 30 Minutes is all that stands between you and saving your home. Make the call.

Sincerely,

Jay S. Jump
